

Philosophy Through Film

By Mary M. Litch, Amy Karofsky

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 3rd Revised edition. 226 x 104 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Many of the classic questions of philosophy have been raised, illuminated, and addressed in celluloid. In this Third Edition of Philosophy through Film, Mary M. Litch teams up with a new co-author, Amy Karofsky, to show readers how to watch films with a sharp eye for their philosophical content. Together, the authors help students become familiar with key topics in all of the major areas in Western philosophy and master the techniques of philosophical argumentation. The perfect size and scope for a first course in philosophy, the book assumes no prior knowledge of philosophy. It is an excellent teaching resource and learning tool, introducing students to key topics and figures in philosophy through thematic chapters, each of which is linked to one or more focus films that illustrate a philosophical problem or topic. Revised and expanded, the Third Edition features: * A completely revised chapter on Relativism, now re-titled Truth with coverage of the correspondence theory, the pragmatist theory, and the coherence theory. * The addition of four new focus films: Inception, Moon, Gone Baby Gone, God...
