By Ted Grider

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ready to have The Talk with your soon-to-be Teenager? No, of course not. None of us are really ready for that. As parents, however, we realize that we either tell our kids about love, faith, disappointment, feelings and -yes- that boy/girl thing or else we allow media, society or our tween s friends to give them the details. As Christian parents we are banking on the Train up a child in the way he should go. proverb to be true. Yet often times, we can t think of how to get The Talk conversation started! In this short straight-to-the-point guide for parents, Ted Grider shares his own conversation with the last son to be raised in the house and invites other parents to create bold, memorable stories that teach about faith, purity, social media, love and going down the best road in life.
