Stout be the front I show, Come what the gods send! Plaided and girt I go Forth to the world s end. My brain is the stithy of years, My heart the red gold Which the gods with sharp anguish and tears Have wrought from of old. In the shining first dawn o the world I was old as the sky, - The morning dew on the field Is no younger than I. I am the magician of life, The hero of runes; The sorrows of eld and old strife Ring clear in my tunes. The sea lends her minstrel voice, The storm-cloud its grey; And ladies have wept at my notes, Fair ladies and gay.
