RETHINKING FEDERALISM: CITIZENS, MARKETS AND GOVERNMENTS IN A CHANGING WORLD

University of British Columbia Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Rethinking Federalism: Citizens, Markets and Governments in a Changing World, Karen Knop, etc., Sylvia Ostry, Richard Simeon, Kathleen Swinton, Federalism is simultaneously a set of institutions - the division of public authority between two or more constitutionally defined orders of government - and a set of ideas, which underpin shared and divided sovereignty, multiple loyalties and identities, and governance through multi-level institutions. Increasingly the latter are not only central...
