Excerpt: . . . and social factors that is setting the Latin American stage for silver-tongued populist candidates who are skilled in the art of politics and can assemble a following sizable enough to sweep them into office. Specifically, these leftist, populist candidates are drawing attention to the degree of poverty within their countries, the reason for which will be discussed next. Theres One for You, Nineteen for Me To declare that the LAC region is poor is misleading - it has wealth and growth, just not for the majority of its people. A quick comparison of gross domestic product (GDP) per capita (adjusted for purchasing power parity PPP) by global region shows LAC countries are wedged securely between the most economically advanced nations and the worlds poorest nations. The LACs 2004 figure of 7, 964 per person is less than the per capita GDP-PPP of people who reside in the countries belonging to the Organization for Economic...
