LOOKING FOR FREEDOM: A CELEBRATION OF THE MUSIC OF JON FROMER

PM Press, United States, 2015. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. 142 x 125 mm. Language: English . Brand New. An audio celebration of labor and civil rights activist and folk singer Jon Fromer s music A tribute to the San Francisco folk and blues artist whose soulful singing style and original songs about work, love, struggle, and triumph helped fuel movements for peace, human rights, and social justice for nearly 50 years, Looking for Freedom: A Celebration of the Music of Jon Fromer is exactly that: a musical celebration of a beloved activist and artist. From marching in Selma in 1965 to his final journey to the School of the Americas Watch protest in late 2012, Jon Fromer (1946 2013) lent constant musical support to people s efforts to build more free, just, and peaceful societies. He performed to devoted fans in packed concert halls across the United States and in Europe but was always most at home leading the singing contingent of a rally, a march, or a picket line. This CD showcases 13 of Jon Fromer s songs, a combination of his most beloved signature pieces and some previously unrecorded material, performed and produced by his nephew and longtime accompanist Reed Fromer. Fan favorites include My Feet Are Tired, a rousing tribute to Rosa Parks and the Montgomery Bus Boycott; Bessie, a recounting of the tragic fate of blues legend Bessie Smith; and Harvest of My Soul, Jon s last completed song, which invokes one s magnified appreciation of the joys of life when time becomes a more precious commodity. Also included are four archival recordings of Jon himself, including two selections from his live concert CD, We Do the Work. The final track is Jon s own rendition of Harvest of My Soul, recorded just five days before...
