Got, a woman there, Sam? Yes, the woman from the hospital; she s going to see my woman, she s very sick. Will you come in and have a warm? No, thank you kindly, we are going on to the next house. At last we come to the house. As soon as we come in, my coats, cap, vamps, and extra socks, are taken off, and all put to warm. They have had dinner long ago, but the kettle is put on the fire. the table is laid, and we sit down to a hot orange syrup drink, and biscuits. We stay three-quarters of an hour, then set out again, the man and woman coming to pack me in my box. Then on we go, through some very pretty country. It was really lovely, the sun was shining brightly, and I felt very happy, and prayed that I might do some good to the poor woman. After a two mile run we reach Griguet, a beautiful land-locked harbor. We cross this to the house. It is a good-sized one, but the rooms are very bare. Passing through the living room, I enter the bedroom, in which are several women. As soon as I saw the sick woman I felt that I wanted to take her straight to the hospital, and put her in a nice clean bed. I found her to be suffering from pleurisy. I did all I could for her, leaving instructions what to do for her until I returned...
