YarnsAndFabrics.co.uk "Cats are one of the hardest creatures to get right and are a complex series of curves and colors that it's all too easy to get wrong. Julie Nash manages to capture not just the anatomy of her subjects, but also their character and the sense that, even in repose they are ready to move instantly." ArtbookReview.net "Animals are always a tricky subject. In this volume, Julie Nash paints five different subjects (poses and colors) and every one of them is completely lifelike these are the best cat pictures I've seen." Paint 48.
